Sense or Nonsense? It's Never Too Late!

Recently an overdue book was returned to the library. What makes this book a little more unique than most others is that it was due

October 12, 1988.

The title of the book is

How Do You Know It's True:

Sifting Sense from Nonsense.

More on Lynchburg Reads

The library has several copies of All But My Life by Gerda Weissmann Klein and copies of the video and DVD One Survivor Remembers have been ordered. The library's book discussion group will discuss the book on Wednesday, March 21 at 1:00 PM, and Mrs. Klein will speak at Smith Hall, Randolph-Macon Woman's College on Monday, March 26 at 7:30 PM. Starting in February, come to the library and pick up a complete schedule of events. For more information, call 455-6310.

Friends of the Library Honored

The Friends of the Lynchburg Public Library was awarded the Virginia Library Association's Friends of the Library Award for 2006. The award is presented annually to a public library Friends Group in recognition of distinguished service to libraries or a library in Virginia. Our Friends were recognized for 40 years of continuing support and for coordinating the 2006 year-long 40th Anniversary celebration.
